The Texas Department of Banking is hosting a free webinar on May 28, 2015. The goal of this webinar is to learn about the new FDIC Money Smart for Young People curriculum, and Banking on Kids, an in-school bank real world experience program by enabling K-8 students operate a real bank, using real money, sponsored by neighborhood banks. Participants of this webinar include: financial institutions, government agencies, non-profit organizations, businesses, teachers, students, consumers, and community leaders who are committed to or are interested in financial education. Participation is free; however, registration is required to obtain webinar instructions. Space is limited.

Reserve your slot today. For questions, contact the Financial Education Coordinator via e-mail or (512) 475-1337.
