Menard National Bank, Menard, Texas Converts to a State-Chartered Bank

Banking Commissioner Charles G. Cooper announced that Menard National Bank, Menard, Texas converted to a state-chartered bank. Effective at the open of business today, the bank will commence operating under the name Menard Bank.

The bank was originally chartered in 1919 in Menard, Texas, where it remains today. The $32.3 million financial institution is a wholly owned subsidiary of Menard Bancshares, Inc., a one-bank holding company.

“We are very pleased to welcome Menard Bank to the state banking system,” stated Banking Commissioner Charles Cooper.
