PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 31, 2013

The First National Bank of Seymour Converts to a State-Chartered Bank

The First National Bank of Seymour headquartered in Seymour, Texas, was issued a state bank charter by Texas Banking Commissioner Charles G. Cooper, effective May 31, 2013. The bank will continue to be a member of the Federal Reserve System.

As a result of the conversion, the former national bank changed its name to First Bank & Trust. The bank has assets of $48.3 million, and has provided financial services to its customers since it was established in 1890. The bank has ten employees and one branch in Matador, Texas.

Banking Commissioner Charles G. Cooper stated, "We are pleased to welcome First Bank & Trust to the state banking system."
