PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 24, 2016

Texas Banking Commissioner Elected Chairman of CSBS Board

On May 24, 2016 at the CSBS State-Federal Supervisory Forum in Denver, Colorado, Banking Commissioner Charles G. Cooper was elected as Chairman to the 2016 – 2017 Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS) Board of Directors. The CSBS Board is comprised of 20 state supervisors and has supervision, control and direction of the affairs of CSBS, its affiliates, its committees and publications, and determines its policies and actively pursues its objectives.

Commissioner Cooper served as Vice Chair of the CSBS Board during 2015 – 2016 year until his election to the position of Chairman. He currently serves as an active member on the CSBS Executive Committee, Legislative Committee, Regulatory Committee, Non-Depository Committee, the Emerging Payments Task Force, and is a member of the Community Bank Steering Group.

CSBS is the nationwide organization of banking regulators from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. For more than a century, CSBS has given state supervisors a national forum to coordinate supervision of their regulated entities and to develop regulatory policy. CSBS also provides training to state banking and financial regulators and represents its members before Congress and the federal financial regulatory agencies.
