Banking Commissioner Names Thomas E. Susany Dallas Regional Director

Texas Banking Commissioner Charles G. Cooper announced today the appointment of Thomas E. Susany as Dallas Regional Director of the Bank and Trust Supervision Division.

As Regional Director, Mr. Susany will be responsible for the bank supervisory activities of the Dallas Regional Office and its 22 staff members. The region is home to 64 state-chartered banks, including some of the largest in Texas, controlling $228 billion in banking assets. The staff serves such diverse communities as Dallas, Athens, Fort Worth, Kilgore, McKinney, Plano, and Waco, among others.

Mr. Susany grew up in El Paso and graduated from Angelo State University with both a Bachelors and Masters in Business Administration. He joined the Department in November 2001 as an assistant financial examiner and received his commission in May 2006. Mr. Susany was appointed Regional Review Examiner in March 2015, a position he held until his promotion to Regional Director.

Mr. Susany is a 2009 graduate of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking (SWGSB) at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. SWGSB is a three-year leadership development program for future leaders in the banking and financial services industry.

“The banks our Dallas region supervises play a very important role in the Texas economy,” said Commissioner Cooper. “I am very pleased to have such an experienced and dedicated bank regulator as Thomas to lead our Dallas office.”
