Worthington National Bank, Arlington, Texas, Converts to a State-Chartered Bank

Banking Commissioner Charles G. Cooper announced today that Worthington National Bank, headquartered in Arlington, Texas, has completed its conversion to a Texas state-chartered bank from a national banking association. Effective November 21, 2022, the new charter will begin operating under the name Worthington Bank.

Originally chartered in 2002, the bank is a wholly owned subsidiary of BancFirst Corporation, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, a publicly traded company on the Nasdaq stock exchange. In addition to its main office in Arlington, the bank also has branch locations in Colleyville and Fort Worth.

The bank will enter the state banking system with approximately $540 million in assets and FDIC deposit insurance coverage for all deposits will continue without interruption or change.

The bank's executive team is led by Chief Executive Officer Greg D. Morse, President Charles E. Yager, III, Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer Daniel P. Mocio, and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Veronica Watkins.

"I am pleased to welcome Worthington Bank to the Texas state banking system and look forward to working with the bank's Board and management to ensure it continues to provide safe and sound financial services to its customers," Commissioner Cooper stated.
